

SERGEANT STUDY GUIDE

What is the definition of the chain of command?

A succession of leaders through which authority and command s pass from leaders to subordinates; communications travels both up and down the chain of command.

What is considered the most important of all military courtesies?

The salute

What do the colors on the flag symbolize?

Red: Valor

White: Purity and Innocence

Blue: Vigilance, Justice and Perseverance

What is considered the point of honor on the U.S. Flag?

The union or the blue field.

What are the names of the three types of flags used by the military?

Storm Flag

Post Flag

Garrison Flag

How do you raise the flag to half-staff?

You raise the flag all the way to the top of the flag pole, then you lower it to half-staff.

Who wrote the Star Spangled Banner?

Francis Scott Key

What are the three phase of the decision making process?

Prepare, Decide and Act

What is the definition of motivate?

A mental feeling that causes a person or thing to act.

What are the two primary responsibilities for a leader?

Accomplishment of their mission and the welfare of his or her personnel

What are the three basic elements of leadership?

The led

The Leader

And the Situation

What is required to succeed in leadership assignments in JROTC?

The Desire, The Time and The Work

What is the definition of (to be a follower”)?

Knowing how to act as a member of a team

What are the two formations used for elements and describe them?

Line formation: when elements are side by side

Column formation: when elements are one behind the other

What are preparatory commands?

A command to alert an individual or a group for a movement

What is the double-time marching pace?

180 thirty inch steps per minute

What are the two parts of a drill command?

Preparatory Command and the Command of Execution

What Army Regulation covers uniform and appearance of both males and females?

AR 670-1 (Army Regulation 670-1)

How many rings may a cadet wear while in uniform?

Up to three, as long as they are conservative and in good taste.

What is the general rule for wearing ribbons and decorations?

The highest award goes on top and to the right

What is the definition of “First Aid”?

The immediate care given to someone until qualified medical treatment can be administered.

What are the four lifesaving steps?

Clear the Airway

Restore Breathing

Stop Bleeding

Treat for Shock

What are the three types of bleeding?

Arterial

Venous

Capillary

When is the only time you apply a tourniquet?

When it is a matter of life or limb.

What are the five colors most commonly found on a topographic map and what do they represent?

Black: Man made features

Blue: Water

Brown: Elevation and relief

Green: Vegetation

Red: Cultural Features

What is the rule for reading grid coordinates?

Right and Up

What is the distance between contour lines known as?

The contour interval

What is the mission of the JROTC?

To motivate young people to become better citizens.

When was JROTC founded?

1916 by an act of Congress in the National Defense Act

What is the highest award in JROTC?

The medal of heroism