

(In Ranks Inspection Questions)

LET III and IV

What does First Aid mean?

The first treatment given to an injured person before professional help arrives.

What is the job of the S1?

Personnel Officer

What is the job of the S3?

Training and Operations Officer.

What is the job of the S4?

Supply or Logistics Officer

What is the job of the PAO?

Public Affairs Officer.

Define Chain of Command

A line of authority and responsibility within an organization.

If you had a question on D & C, which FM would you look in?

FM 22-5

When did Congress pass the ROTC Vitalization Act?

1964

When did Congress first authorize the actual formation of the Reserve Officer's Training Corps?

1916

Why should an instructor use training aids?

They appeal to the senses, generate interest, develop understanding and save time.

What are some good ways to open your lesson when teaching?

Good opening statement, rhetorical question, stories, question, facts, examples

In marching, most commands have two parts. What are they?

Preparatory and Execution

What is the definition of addiction?

The inability to stop using a substance.

What are the four basic lifesaving steps in first aid?

Restore breathing, stop bleeding, treat for shock, dress the wound

What are the three ways to stop bleeding?

Pressure bandage, pressure points and tourniquet

Also know your Chain of Command